The image shows a musical score for a drum part, labeled 'Drs' on the left. It consists of two staves, numbered 56 and 61. Each staff has a musical notation line with notes and rests, and a drum notation line with vertical strokes and beams. The musical notation includes eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together, and rests. The drum notation uses vertical strokes to represent hits, with beams indicating eighth or sixteenth note rhythms. The score is written in a standard musical notation style with a key signature of one flat (Bb) and a common time signature (C).

66 Interlude

A musical score for a piece titled 'Interlude'. The score is written on a grand staff with two staves. The top staff contains a series of chords, each marked with a '0' above it, indicating a capo position. The bottom staff contains a series of chords, each marked with a '0' above it, indicating a capo position. The score is divided into four measures, each containing two chords. The first measure has a '66' in the top left corner. The second measure has a '66' in the top left corner. The third measure has a '66' in the top left corner. The fourth measure has a '66' in the top left corner. The score is written in a style that suggests it is a guitar or ukulele score.
