The image displays a musical score for the song "The Sound of Silence" by Simon & Garfunkel. The score is arranged in four staves, each representing a different instrument or voice part:

- Ba (Bass): The first staff shows the bass line in G major (one sharp). It begins with a low octave (indicated by an '8' below the staff) and features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, including a descending eighth-note triplet in the first measure.
- TA<sub>B</sub> (Tapping): The second staff contains numerical fret numbers for a tapping guitar part. The sequence of numbers across the measures is: 3, 2, 2, 3, 0; 5, 2, 2, 3, 0; 3, 2, 3, 0; 3, 0, 2.
- V<sub>0</sub> (Vocal): The third staff, marked with a treble clef and a sharp key signature, shows a vocal line with a single note (F#) in each of the four measures, represented by a short horizontal bar.
- Drs (Drums): The fourth staff represents the drum part. It uses 'x' marks for cymbal hits and vertical stems for other drum sounds. Above the staff, there are markings for a hi-hat pattern: a series of 'x's for the first two measures, followed by a '0' (indicating a closed hi-hat) for the last two measures of each measure. Below the staff, there are orange dots representing a bass drum pattern, with some dots having a diagonal slash through them.
